

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Calling Out Cultural Lies
Jeremiah 29:1-9 | Christians Shouldn't Speak
Into Politics

MAIN IDEA:

---

Be in the world but not of the world

Pre-Questions

Before hearing this sermon, what were your thoughts about Christian influence in politics?

What challenged you from this sermon?

QUESTIONS

1. What does it look like to "seek the welfare of the city?" What does it look like to do it as a Community Group?
2. How can we love people who vote differently than us?
3. Read Romans 13:1-7. How should we be subject (or submissive) to the government? What does it mean? Is there a line where Christians shouldn't submit?
4. Politics can often be divisive, even among Christians. How can we navigate disagreements on political issues while maintaining unity in Christ?
5. Read Matthew 5:9. How can we live out Jesus' call to be peacemakers in politically charged environments?
6. Reflect on Philippians 3:20, where Paul reminds us that our citizenship is in heaven. How does this shape the way we engage in earthly political matters?
