

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

A Season Is Ending & Beginning
Ecclesiastes 3:1-15

MAIN IDEA:

---

Whatever season we are in, what matters is that we glorify God forever.

Sermon Outline:

1. ...ending because nothing lasts forever (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8)
- 2..beginning because God reigns (Ecclesiastes 3:8-15)

Pre-Questions

1. Can you share a personal experience of a significant transition in your life? How did you see God's hand at work during that time?
2. As we prepare to move into the new worship center, what hopes and expectations do you have for this new chapter in our church's journey?

QUESTIONS

1. Ecclesiastes speaks of a time for every activity under heaven. How do you interpret the timing of our move to the new worship center in light of this passage?
2. Change can bring both excitement and uncertainty. How can we, as a church community, support one another in embracing this transition with faith and unity?
3. Verses 11 and 14 highlight God's sovereignty and the permanence of His works. How does acknowledging God's control over our church's journey influence your perspective on this move?
4. As we prepare for this transition, let's each identify one way we can contribute to making the new worship center a place where God's presence is felt, and His name is glorified. Share your commitment with the group.
